Our minds are constantly fragmented and scattered, so it is any wonder that it seems impossible to focus on one object? We are accustomed to doing more than one thing at a time (for example, listening to music while we drive, or talking on the phone while preparing a meal).

With regular practice we can tame the mind and bring it under control. With regular practice we can keep our minds and emotions in balance.

Please wear comfortable clothing i.e. stretch pants. Bring a blanket for relaxation.

You will need to buy or bring a mat.
In the long term you will need to purchase a block

Yoga Mats/blocks (these can be brought direct from the tutor if required).

A683 The Evolution of Corsetry From Early Examples to the Present Day Presentation & Discussion with Jane Beagrie

As part of the 50th Anniversary of Alton Community Association we are looking into the history of corsetry as a nod to the buildings previous use as a factory involved in the Manufacture of Foundation Garments

£8.00 (ACA Members £4.50) Saturday 20th Sept 14.00-16.00 at Alton Community Centre
There will be a 30 minute interval for refreshments.

The art and craft of creating corsets has undergone significant transformations throughout history from its early examples to contemporary designs. Corsetry has evolved in terms of materials, construction techniques and societal significance. This presentation delves into the rich history of corsetry, highlighting key developments and examples to illustrate its journey. Looking back at centuries and decades of development is an interesting journey and is a journey through historic events which have shaped fashion. As world renowned British Miliner Stephen Jones once said "Today's fashion is tomorrows costume"

A684 Discover the Art of Corsetry-Tailored to You (Make your own Corset) with Jane Beagrie

£149.00 (ACA Members £134.10) Saturday 18th Oct—8th
Nov 9.30-12.30 for 4 weeks at Alton Community Centre
Price includes all materials (supplied by the tutor) needed to create your own bespoke corset.

Pre-made corsets often sacrifice comfort for style and rarely offer a perfect fit-especially beyond standard sizing. In this welcoming beginners course, you will learn how to create a soft corset that's designed specifically to your own measurements.

This course is designed for those who have a knowledge of sewing but wish to extend their skills. Step by step course from construction and fitting to wearing your corset with confidence—whether layered over or worn discreetly under clothing. This class is ideal for anyone looking to explore styling options and make something truly unique and wearable whether it is just for fun, for a specific event or for a costume or if you just want to extend your sewing skills. Equipment list available from reception when you enrol.

A571 9 Star Ki Japanese Astrology Workshop with Sue Kelly

£35.00 (ACA Mem £31.50) Saturday 13th Sept 9.00-12.30 at Alton Community Centre

Nine star Ki is a Japanese form of astrology, combining numerology with your year, month and date of birth.

Learn what the nine numbers mean, and how they combine to give a unique template for ourselves.

Learn the interaction of these numbers with the others on our chart, looking at clashes and combinations within the year and month numbers. How do others perceive us?

What is our role in life? How do we interact on a daily basis.

A380 Creative Writing: Spoken Word/Performance Poetry with Betty Knight

£145.00 (ACA Members £130.50) Wednesday 24th Sept-17th Dec 18.00-19.30 for 12 weeks at Alton Community Centre Half term 29th Oct

Rooted in the South African traditions of Praise & Critique poetry. Spoken word is a dynamic and expressive art form that blends performance with poetic storytelling. This course is ideal if you wish to develop their writing and performance skills in a supportive environment.

Whether you are a curious beginner or have some experience, you'll be encouraged to find your unique voice and use poetry as a tool for self expression, mental wellbeing and empowerment. You will be encouraged to explore both personal and social themes and develop your voice and style through rhythm, language and emotion.

The course tutor is Betty Knight (BA Hons) MA, Doctoral researcher in English-Creative and critical writing. She is also the author of 'A Nest of Voodoo Dolls' and 'Black Cloud Rider' and the editor of Botswana Women Write Spoken Word Anthology. Her work explores race, identity and the Black female experience in the diaspora. She brings a wealth of knowledge and lived experience to her teaching.

A281 3D CAD (Computer Aided Design) with Graham Knight

£145.00 (ACA Members £130.50) Tuesday 23rd Sept-16th Dec 18.00-19.30 for 12 weeks Tuesday 23rd Sept—16th Dec at Alton Community Centre Half term 28th Oct

Would you like to redesign a room, design a piece of furniture or 3D print jewellery or functional parts using free software?

Learn how to use 3D CAD (three-dimensional computer aided design) software to create virtual three-dimensional models for design or DIY projects e.g. product, furniture and interior design, architecture, 3D printing etc.

You will be taught the principles and practices of working with both 'Sketchup' and 'AutoDesk Fusion' software, through a series of hands-on activities. You will explore the tools and settings that support the efficient production of a range of complex and accurate 3D CAD models and their associated production drawings, rendered images, animations, simulations and data for 3D printing.

This course is for students of all ages, who have some experience using a computer but have little if any experience using CAD software.

Ensure you have a portable device e.g. a laptop computer, that can access 'Sketchup for Web' software and has a downloaded version of 'AutoDesk Fusion for personal use'. IT guidance on accessing software and minimum hardware requirements are available upon request.

You will be guided by Graham Knight BA (Hons) 3D Design, who has taught A-Level Design and Technology at Alton College for 27 years and used 3D CAD software for 20 years.
